North

Do You Remember ..

..Your first day at North, and the funny feeling in the pit of your stomach as you watched the upperclassmen sauntering by?

..The crowded stairways, and the smell of paint during construction days?

..Your sense of "having arrived" when you saw your name in the Polaris Weekly?

..The drain on the budget that the splinters on lunchroom stools were to the girls?

..The time Mr. Schultz caught you running in the halls?

..The stark fear of failing that Civics exam, and the mad haste with which you crammed for it?

..The first time she let you hold her hand, and the first time he sent you flowers?

..The fun you had at the basket-ball games?

..And the thrill you felt as you received your diploma?

That you may re-live such experiences in the activities and achievements of the past year at North, this book is published.

MR. ALBERT BANK
Principal

"This year has seen many changes in the school building but it is apparent that there is great need for additional improvements if the school plant is to meet the needs of the young people who attend North High. We look forward to the enrichment of the opportunities afforded students who are anxious to make the most of themselves.

We have noted during the past year, a fine spirit of work and cooperation. Good citizenship has been evidenced in all departments of the school. There has been good feeling on all sides. A larger proportion of students have experienced the joy derived from work well done.

All of us have taken pride in the accomplishments of North High graduates in the past. As the years come and go, may you be distinguished not alone because of your material success but because you have ever stood for the right."

A dance that refreshes...

The class of January 1940 was a fun-loving group. These enterprising Polarites not only celebrated with a Prom at the Curtis Hotel, but promoted social activity for future classes at North by presenting the school with an R.C.A. combination victrola and radio, placed in the girls' gym with a set of amplifiers. This phonograph has made the "Sun-Lite" a permanent feature of North's social life.

Even seniors study..sometimes...

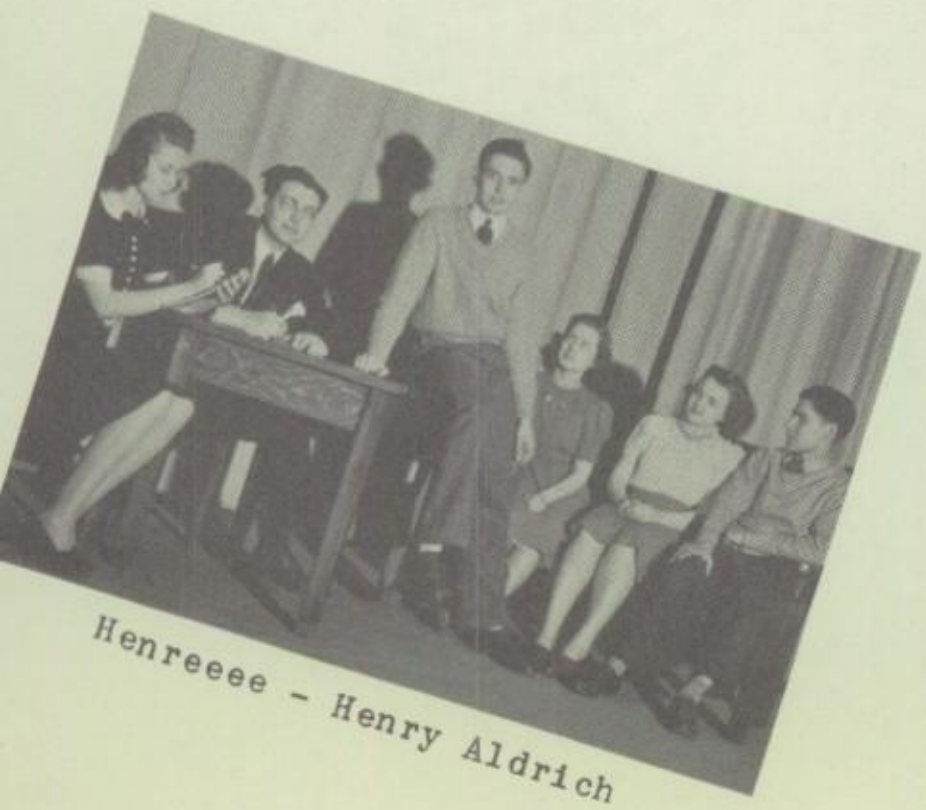
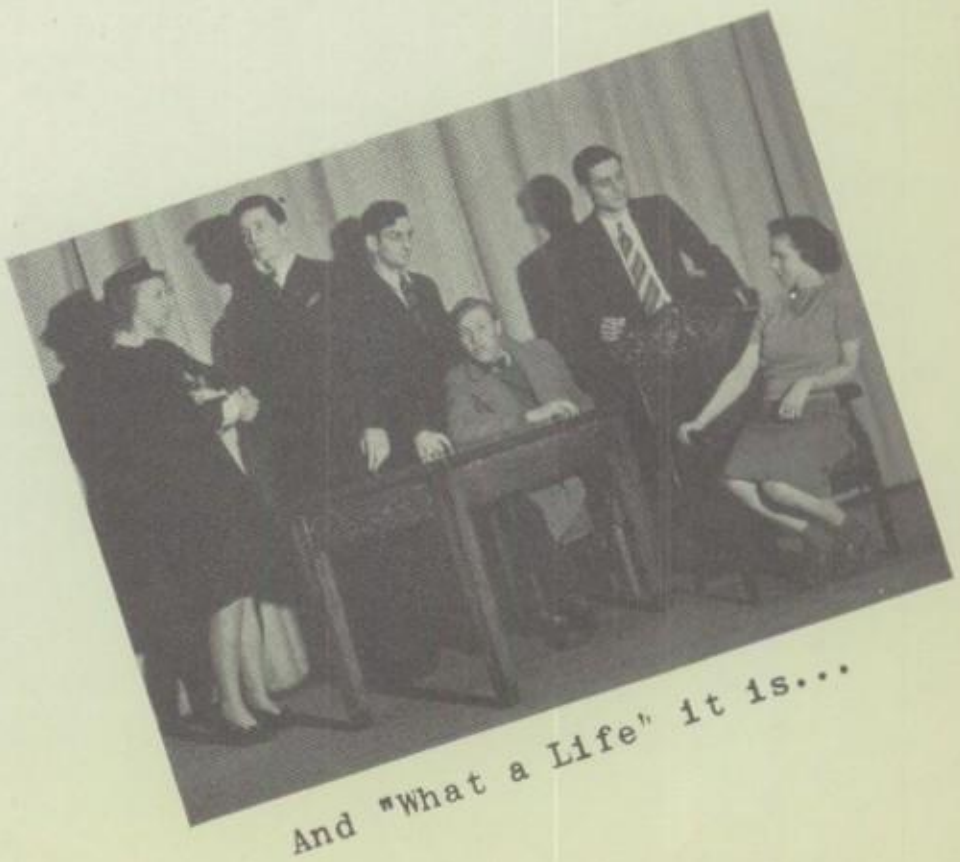
Senior Activities



Henreeee - Henry Aldrich



And "What a Life" it is...

8:20...last call to homeroom...attendance to be checked...bulletins to be read...student council reports to be given...club notices and invitations to be distributed...students' money to be banked ...contents of the POLARIS to be enjoyed...homework to be finished...the school day begins...

The homeroom period has been lengthened to twenty minutes the past term. This longer period has created an opportunity for various homeroom activities. Homerooms have conducted discussions on current topics of school life---the honesty survey, courtesy, and rules of school proceedure have been generally discussed. Many of the teachers have used part of the extra time in becoming better acquainted with their advisees and in helping them with individual problems. During advisory period students have been able to plan their programs for the remainder of their high school years, thus making certain that they will have the required subjects for graduation, and college entrance.

Annual Staff

If you were one of the Annual staff this year, you were late to supper more than once. What is more, you let your homework pile up until you were the despair of all your teachers. Then to top it all off, you worked on Saturdays several times and lost that precious, extra two hours of sleep.

Never-the-less, there was a compensation for all this sacrifice, in the thrill you felt as page after page of your own special section was completed--two days after the deadline, eh editor? You had the satisfaction of helping to make North's yearbook.

Best of luck to a swell gal.

Walt. Nyberg.

Polaris Staff

The Polaris Weekly, a ten page paper of tabloid size published every Friday morning of the school year, is the only high school paper in the country edited, made up, and printed by the same staff. It is one of the few papers in the country, and the only high school paper in the northwest, printed by the offset process of lithography.

Edited on the theme of the Polaris for the Polars, the paper has the largest proportionate subscription of any high school paper in the city where subscription is voluntary. "I enjoy the Polaris particularly," says one of the city's school administrators, "for its content is varied, live in subject matter and treatment, and reads as though it were staff, not teacher, written."

Its special features, comic strip, cartoons, and live sport pages win and hold subscribers. Best of all these, the Polaris balances its budget.

The lunch room staff is composed of girls in the commercial cooking class, which meets two periods of the day under the direction of Mrs. Claussen. They operate the cash registers in both students' and teachers' lunch rooms. They handle all the food sold in the lunch room. Only Senior girls who have had two semesters of cooking are eligible.

Bulletin Board

The Bulletin Board Committee, as their name signifies, has charge of the bulletin boards in the halls. It is their duty to keep the boards arranged neatly, and attractively. It is also their duty to post all important notices on the hall boards. The chairman for the fall term was Carol Simpson.

Bank Cashiers

North has reason to be proud of its banking record this year. Mr. Bank received a letter from the Farmers and Mechanics Bank saying that while other schools in the city had had noticeable decreases in deposits the last year, North had shown a 20% increase.

Miss Clara Nelson's group of twenty-two advisees, with Edward Vinokour as Bank Cashier, achieved the remarkable record of 100% and held it consistently.

The Thrift Committee has had the real cooperation of the students, who realize that it is a distinct advantage to have a school savings bank at their service.

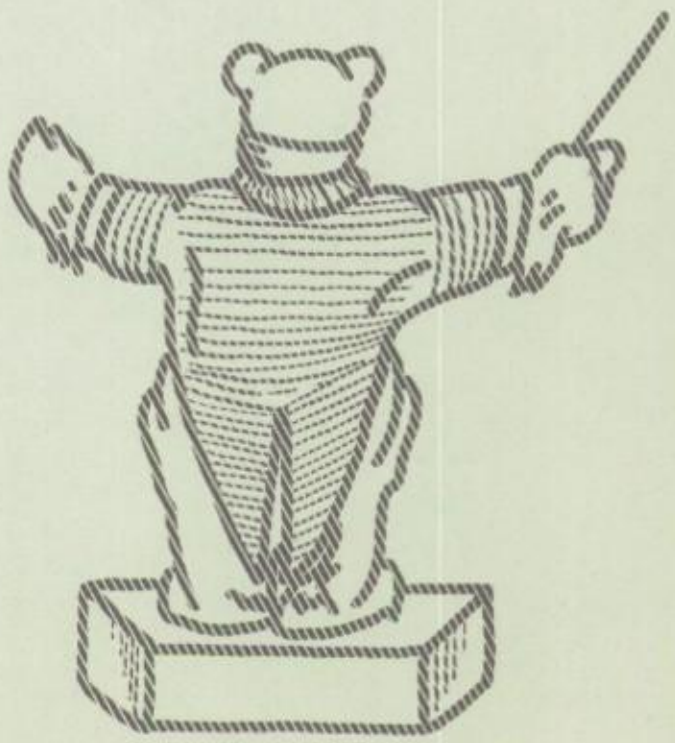
This special class gives students who are interested, training in radio dramatization and in script writing. The group, under the able direction of Miss M. Long, presents several radio programs during the year. These are heard over local stations on educational programs. The officers for the fall term were R.Berg and J.Johnson, C.-chairmen; G.Ridman, Sec.; and V.Anderson, Technician. The spring term officers were W.Galbraith, Chairman; L.Gorham, Sec.; A.Butt, Treas.; and Z.Israel, Technician.

Radio Workshop

Orchestra

The orchestra, of sixty-five members, is directed by Mr. Clive Cleary. The concert mistress for the fall term was Louise Steuck; Theodora Mantz was concert mistress for the spring term.

Perfectly balanced in instrumentation, the group plays with such musicianship that when Mr. Giddings, Minneapolis Director of Music, comes to call, he usually stays over his allotted time because he delights in the orchestra's interpretation of the classics. A high light of the Spring Revue, this year, was a group of Strauss waltzes played by the orchestra.



Band

Officially representing the State of Minnesota, the North High School Band played before the King and Queen of the British Empire on the occasion of their visit to Winnipeg in May, 1939. The band won first place in the international competition held at that time.

In July of 1939, the band won highest honors at the American Legion Convention in Minneapolis. Again in October of that year the band walked off with first place in the Centennial Celebration contest. On June 8 of 1940 the band will begin its trip to the New York World's Fair where it will be the special feature of Minnesota Day on June 11. It will play a four day engagement at the Fair. On its return trip, the Band will give concerts at Washington, D.C. and at Buffalo, New York.

The North High Glee Club is composed of boys and girls with better-than-average voices. They sing very well and with the Choir they presented the oratorio "Isiah" to the public this fall.

It is the usual practice of the Glee Club to present an operetta each spring. This year it veered from its usual course and participated in the Spring Revue. Along with the other acts they, assisted and advised by Mr. Tenney, made the Revue quite a success.

Choir

The North A Cappella Choir is better this year than ever before. They read music faster and have better tones than any of Mr. Tenney's previous classes. Mr. Tenney plans to enter them in several contests this spring, including the National Contest.

This fall the choir gave a performance of the well known oratorio "Isaiah". They have put their best into everything they have done, and consequently, have always given exacting and inspiring performances.

The athletic board is composed of twenty sports-minded girls. It is their duty to organize and referee the games between different teams of the school, and to supervise all after school activities. The work of these girls really deserves praise.

"N" Girls

By participating in team and individual sports, the girls obtained points toward letters and emblems. The emblem, a one thousand point award, is the highest recognition that any girl may receive. An "N" is presented to every girl who earns 600 points.

Golf

Among the numerous activities offered to North High girls was that of golf. The girls' main objective was to learn the correct way of standing, and of holding and using each golf club. Under the watchful eyes of Miss Haveson, the girls became quite skilled.

Many girls came out for touchfootball this fall. They were interested in getting points toward their "N" and in having fun. The girls managed to accomplish both of these despite the early cold weather. Together they worked out plays and got acquainted with other girls who were interested in active team sports.

Volleyball

The G. A. A. Board was very pleased this spring with the large number of enthusiastic girls who came out for volleyball. The girls became so proficient in the sport and enjoyed it so much that they continued playing far after their allotted number of games was over.

Row One: M. Chelstrom, F. Liemandt, N. Zechlin, J. Barre, D. Severson, P. Hansen, R. Harding, M. Webster. Row Two: D. Walch, G. Johnson, N. Taft, M. Rieman, L. Nanfelt, J. Lathrop. Row Three: S. Basketball

Basketball was very popular with the girls this fall. More than 100 of them came out to earn their points. We had a very successful season.

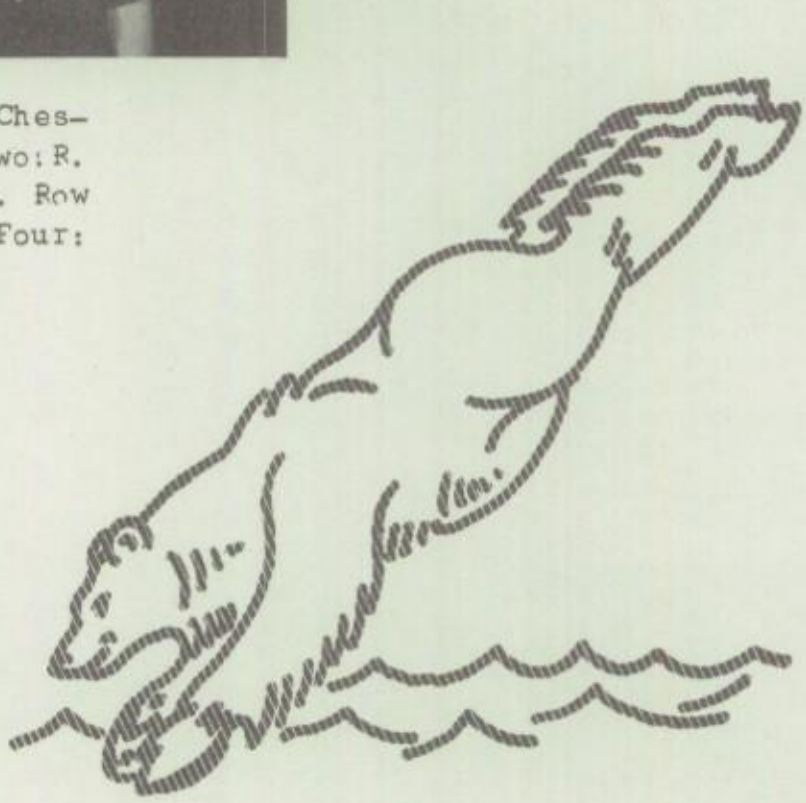
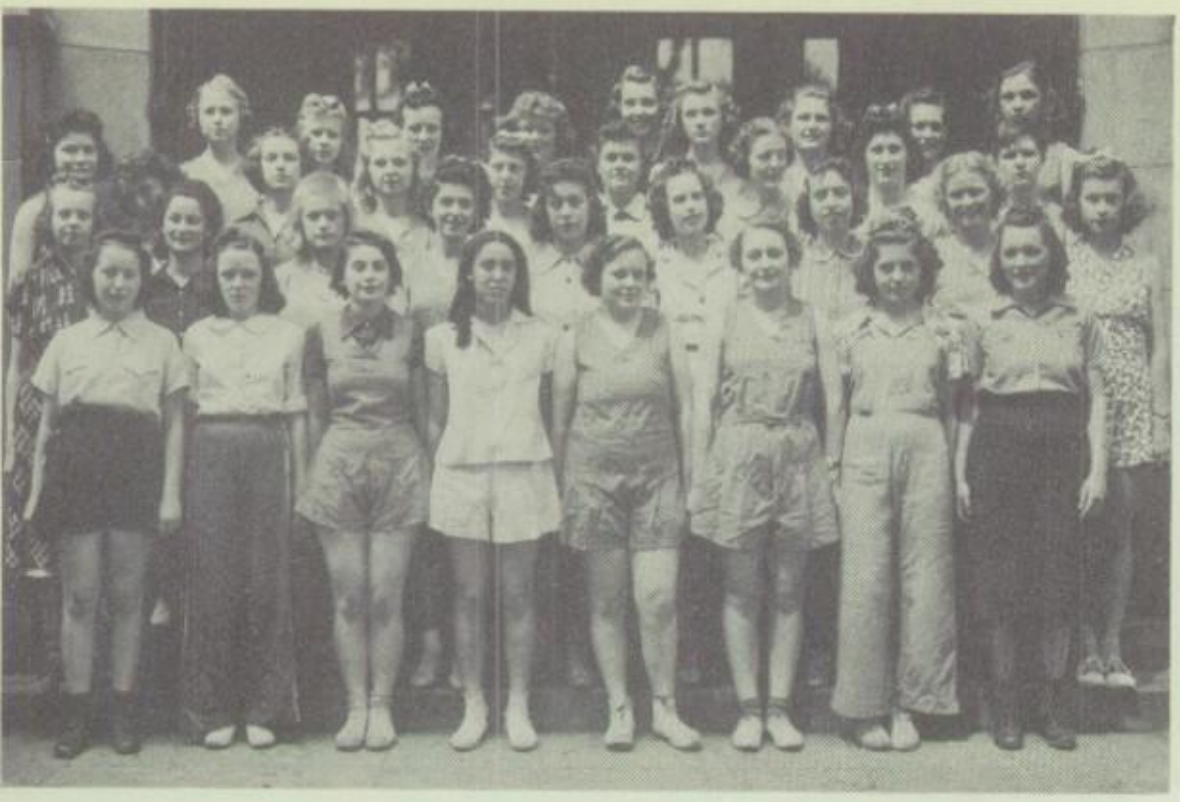
Swimming

The swimming pools at Franklin and Lincoln Junior Highs proved very popular places for the girls this year. With practices every Wednesday and Thursday, many girls learned new strokes and dives, and greatly improved upon those which they already knew.



Badminton

Since Badminton was first introduced at North, it has become very popular and is heartily welcomed by all. Games are scheduled in which both boys and girls compete. Badminton seems to have a most promising future at North.



Row One: L.Hoden, V.Peterson, M.Poppin, E. Kelly, R. Nelson, B.J.Johnson, A. Desm, K. Flemming. Row Two: P.Fischer, J.Girod, B. Roemer, P. Lindholm, A. Condoluci, M.De Marais, B.Dixon, E.O'Brien, B.Schugg.

Baseball

Baseball is the sport most enjoyed by the girls. Because the teams were so evenly matched, there was a great deal of competition and fun among the rival groups.

Tennis

Tennis has really come into its own as a spring sport. Classes were organized because some of the girls were more advanced than others. The beginners were shown the elementary strokes and the essential rules of the game, while the more advanced girls played in tournments.

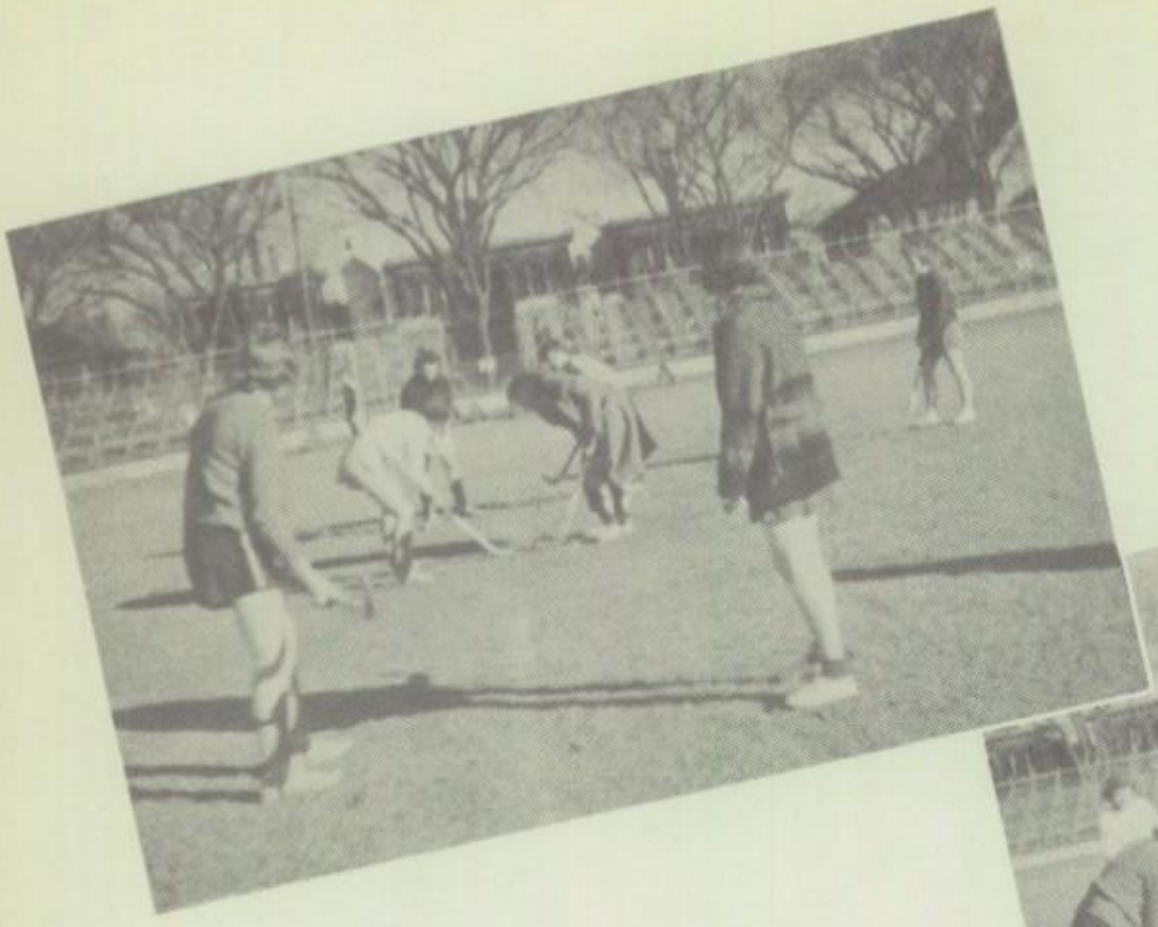
Hiking

After a day of inactivity in school, nothing is so invigorating as an hour's brisk walk. That's what the girls who received their points for hiking thought, too. They had wiener roasts at Glenwood and hikes along the Mississippi. The girls also visited Camden and various other places of interest on the North Side.

Field Hockey



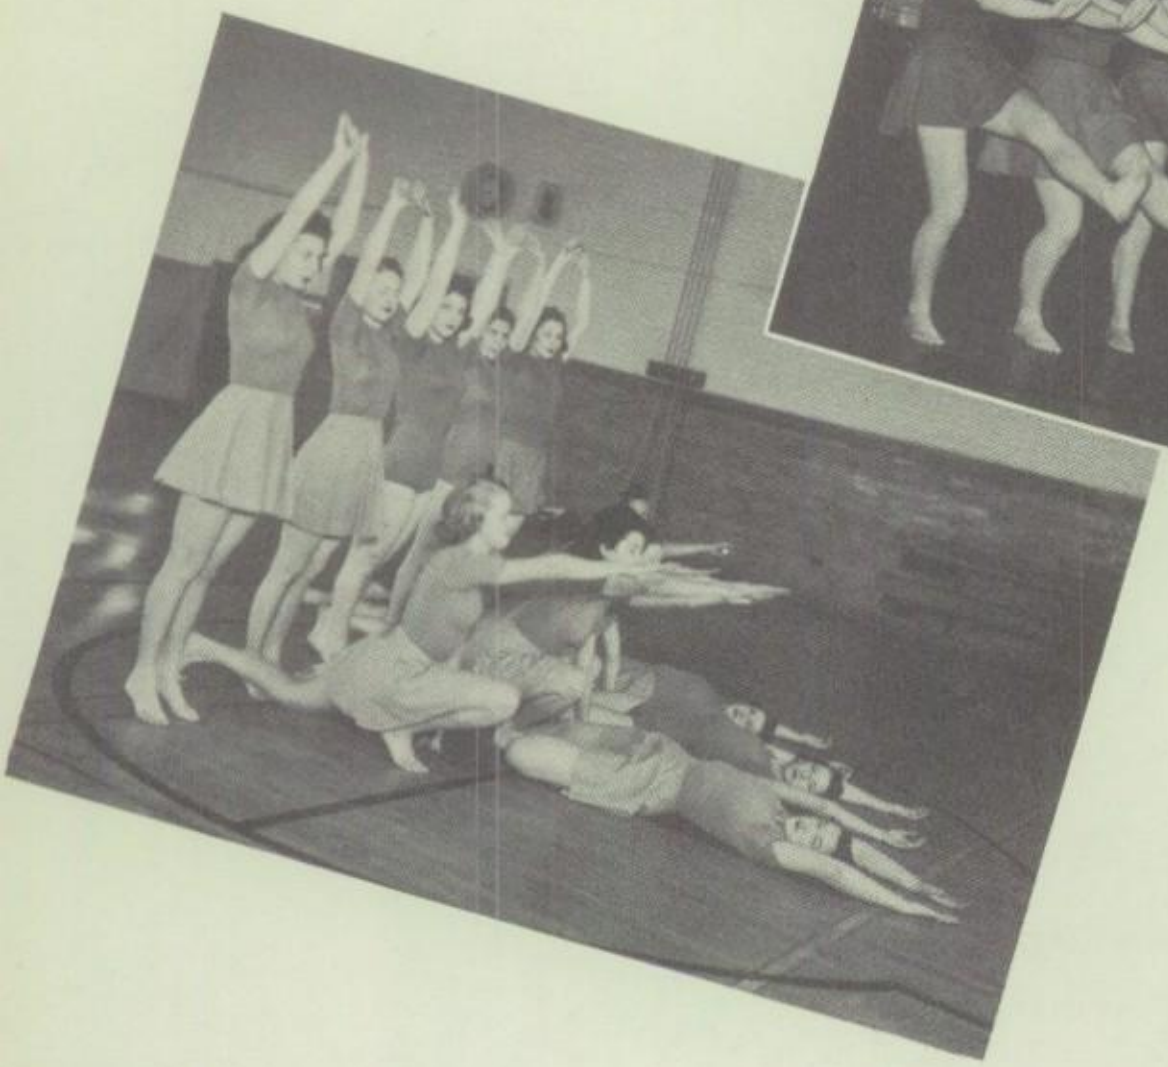
Hockey is usually played on ice, but the girls in Miss Dennings sixth periid class learned a variation of this sport known as field hockey. It is an outdoor autumn sport played with a stick and a wooden ball. The girls enjoyed it so much that not even the early winter cold could keep them in.

Skating

Despite the short skating season this winter, there was a good turnout at the different Northside rinks. Although some didn't receive their full 50 points, all the girls had a grand time.

Row One: M. Christenson, D. Kipp, R. Harding, I. Chesebro, L. Griffin, L. Miller. Row Two: B. Festedt, E. Albrecht, W. Winther, G. Condoluci, J. Olson, B. Westerlund.

Modern Dance



This year the Modern Dancing class celebrated its fifth anniversary here at North. It is getting to be more and more popular with the girls, for it perfects the poise, balance, and rhythm of their bodies, and teaches the girls to create original dance compositions.

Table Tennis

Because of the new equipment, the girls became interested in table tennis more than ever. They played it in individual sports classes and also after school. Tournaments added excitement to the games and provided many heated battles.

Great things were predicted for the Polars' 1939 football team, but a series of injuries and ineligibilities struck the Polar ranks, and as a consequence, the team experienced a rather dismal season. The best the Northside gridders could gain was a 13 to 0 victory over Alexandria in a pre-season tilt and a 13 to 13 tie with Washburn.

Don Johnson sparked the crippled Polar eleven with his untiring efforts all through the season, and he was rewarded with a position on the Star-Journal's All-City team. Other boys who cannot be forgotten because of their never-say-die spirit, even though they were losing game after game, are Chet Johnson, Bud Whalen, Wilbur Kessler, Neal Bredeson, Clare Lynch, and Roy Severson.

Under the able guidance of Coach Sam Perrin, the sophomore basketeers tied for the leadership of the Goodwill League with Patrick Henry during the 1940 campaign.

The Polar Cubs excelled on the defensive side of playing rather than the offensive. Whatever the boys lacked in scoring, they made up for by being mighty stingy with their opponents' points.

The Polar Cubs' football forces under the wing of Sam Perrin broke even in their double round-robin football schedule during 1939.

At the close of the season Carl Larson, coach of the "A" squad, called for practices in which the '40 gridders played this year's regulars. In the scrimmages, many of the boys showed that they were of good enough caliber to play prep football, so the Polars' prospects for 1940 look brighter.

Basketball

Four victories and four defeats, or a .500 rating, was the remarkable record that Coach Jacobi accomplished with the '40 cagers. This would seem to be only an average season, but when a coach has only one veteran, who can ask for better?

The Polars beat Central, Vocational, Roosevelt, and Washburn, while they lost to South, West, Marshall, and Edison.

Nate Griver, Ken "Lefty" Erickson, and Al "Dutch" Schoenecker received mention on many All-City teams.

Apparatus

Glad to have known you Vern Sanders

The North High apparatus team won four more dual meets this season to run up their victory string to a remarkable 22 straight. The Polar musclemen, therefore, have been undefeated in four years of dual competition—really a great record for Coach Lou Burnett and his cohorts. North also won the "B" Class championship in the City meet at the "U" and the all-around championship in the City Y.M.C.A. Meet. Although Roosevelt nosed out the Polars by eight and one half points in the Northwest Gym Meet, six North boys were declared champs. These include: Captain Chuck Havill, Clyde Moeshler, and "C" classmen Robert Smith, Vernon Sanders, Edwin Trombley, and Ken Sigfrinius.

In addition to these fellows, the following Polars also had a lot to do with North's success: George Bates, Albert Milner, Vernon Olson, James Farnham, Ned Wick, Gerald Floa, James Ragcroft, and Henry Knauff.

It is well to remember, too, that North's chances in the Northwest Meet were hurt by the loss of "B" classmen Sammy Diamond and Richard Dygart by Midyear graduation and of Dick Gillis, who suffered a broken arm.

Hockey

The Polar hockey team of 1940 was able to cop but one victory--a 4-1 conquest of Edison's pucksters--which wound them up in sixth place, just above the Tommies in the cellar.

Although the Polars could salvage but one triumph in conference play, they really put up stubborn fights in all their tilts, most of their losses being by one or two point margins, and in non-conference frays, they beat Robbinsdale and St. Louis Park.

Skating

The North speed skating team looked promising when it defeated Vocational in a dual meet, but did not come up to expectations in the city meet. Of the seven men competing, but one graduates and so it is permissable to look forward to greater success in 1941. Outstanding was Sidney Weinstein, city amateur skating star for the second year with North.

Always at or near the top in ski jumping and cross country running, the North team this year even outdid its prececessors. It tied for city honors with Washburn and placed second in the state meet. The latter was held in Minneapolis for the first time and was a highly successful venture. Don Swanson won the only individual medal the North boys acquired, taking a first place in the slalom, a downhill race However, the splendid all around work by the members of the Polar team brought a nice runner-up trophy to their school. A most unfortunate accident to Ray Carlson the day before the meet kept him out of competition with a fractured hip.

North High's tankmen opened their season with a 38-28 victory over Boys' Vocational and wound up in grand fashion with a hard-fought 39-36 win at Edison's expense. As much, however, can not be said for the six meets intervening, since the Polar plungers were dunked in all of these.

Coach Art Lindman exchanged victory for experience when he sent his cohorts against Cretin, and Boys' Vocational in practice meets.

Among the outstanding men for North were Bill Gleason, 220 man and backstroker in the medley event; Don Ross and Allen Gruman in the dashes; Dale Juntilla in the breast stroke and Vernon Olson on the diving board.

ROW ONE: J.Blaegrove, J.Cosgrove, R.Post, J. Watten, K. Erickson, J.Cowles. ROW TWO: J.Brown, R.Peterson, Saltau, R.Guzzo, J.Curtis, J.Wiggins, ROW THREE: K.Erickson, D. Johnson, S.Rettke, G. Stewart, J.Pazck, D. Cogswell, D. Turnquist.

Baseball

Tom Kennedy's North High baseball team of 1939 came through with five victories out of eight games to wind up in a second-place tie with West and South.

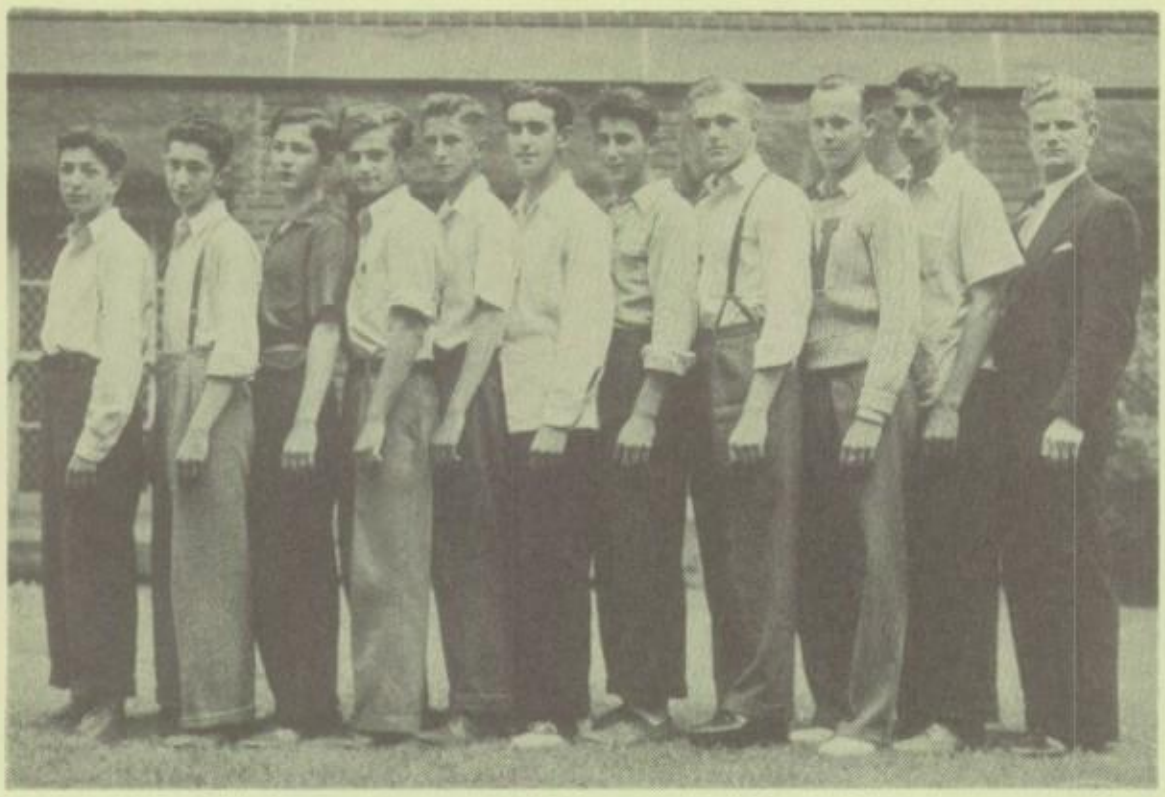
Of the five Polar victories, those over Boys' Vocational, Roosevelt, and Central were especially thorough, as the Polar batsmen averaged 13 runs and 11 hits for the three tilts while their opposition was limited to only 4 runs and 6 hits. Both the close Polar triumphs over Washburn and Marshall were marked by North's grabbing early leads and then preventing the opposition from catching up.

West's 8-0 whitewash was the worst Polar defeat. Cowboy hurler, Bob Peterson, kept North's batsmen down with six hits, while his mates were battering the horsehide with 18 blows. The Blue and White beatings to South and to the champion, Edison, saw the Polar nine come up with spirited rallies in the late innings, only to fall by one run margins in each tilt.

The 1939 Polars also won the Class "L" championship in the Carleton college interscholastic baseball tournament at Northfield, Minnesota.

Receiving All-City recognition for North were catcher, Don Erickson, who batted .423, and keystone sacker, Don "Daisy" Cogswell, whose spectacular .600 batting clip was among the league's best.

Tennis



J. Friedman, A. Sachter, E. Vinekour, J. Schwartz, R. Coughlin, Z. Berman, N. Griver, C. Steele, W. Nyberg, J. Arnold, Coach Lindman.

The 1939 Tennis Team didn't fare so well in league competition, but they were very successful in their non-conference matches.

The return of Nate Griver, Joe Schwartz, Jerome Friedman, and Zelig Berman, tends to make the 1940 aggregation a very competent outfit.

ROW ONE: J. Skinner, V. Watten, K. Murphy, J. Brose, J. Spewak, R. Theisen, ROW TWO: J. Beers, L. Taylor, A. Gartz, V. Wexler, C. Lehrman, K. Murphy, R. Johannsen. ROW THREE: D. Aho, S. Goldstein, J. 1940 saw Coach Burnett send his tracksters through one of their best Polar cinder seasons.

The Polars copped 11 points in the Metropolitan meet, while in the Indoor Relay Event the boys won the 880 Medley. The Outdoor Relays found Burnett's cohorts winning first place in the Medley relay, too.

North's trackmen garnered 20½ points in the Quintangular at South, with a victory in the relay as their best effort. In the City Meet, Bales, Lehrman, and the two Johnsons all placed.

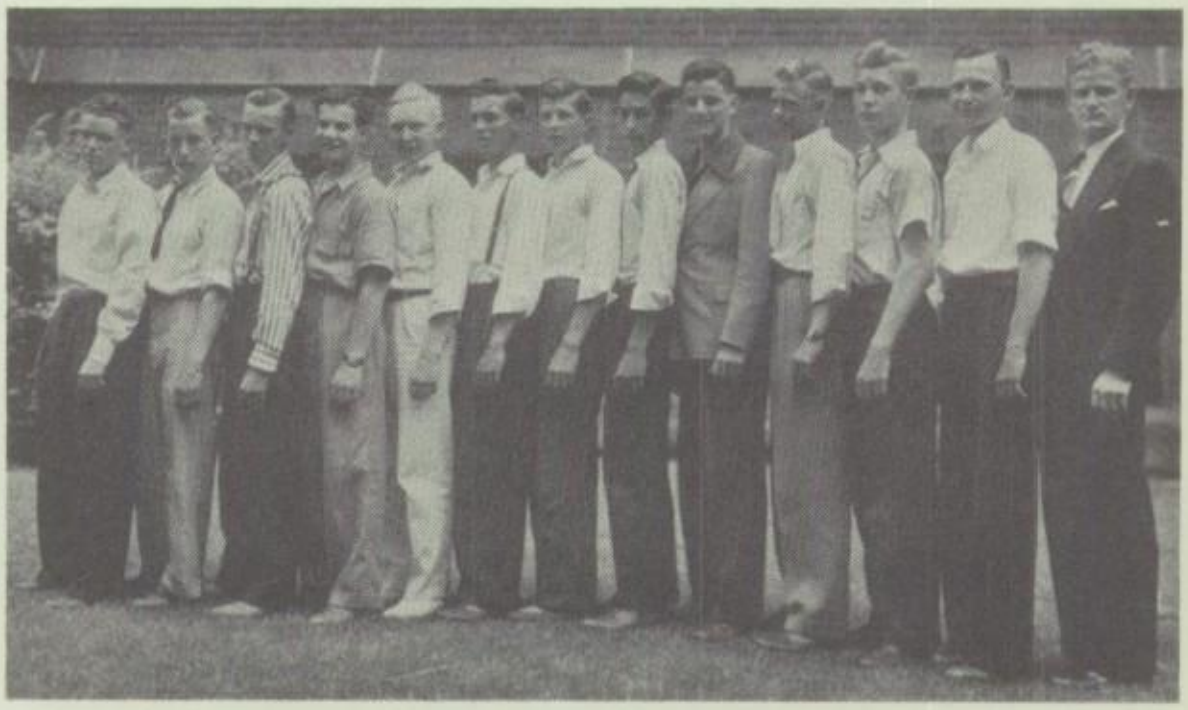
Boxing

ROW ONE: J. Williams, C. Taylor, C. Johnson, ROW TWO: R. T. Dougherty, H. Davis, M. Hammond, G. Collins, E. Hines.

If there had been interscholastic boxing, North would have had plenty to say about the championship, for they turned out some of the best boxers in the city.

In the school tournament those who won championships are Don Brouillard, heavyweight; "Kid Koach" Lou Riskin, lightheavyweight; Chet Johnson, welterweight; Walley Campbell, lightweight; Don Collins, featherweight; Henry Bydlon, bantamweight; and Matt Hammond, flyweight.

Golf



J. Callan, Dorff, R. Antletz, S. Meltzer, D. Schernbeck, R. Murphy, D. Juntilla, I. Schloner, B. Blindman, R. Erickson, R. Olson, J. Young, Coach Lindman.

Four and three tells the entire story of North's 1939 golf team. The Polar linksmen dropped matches to Marshall, South, West, Edison, and Roosevelt by the this close margin.

The highlight of the season, however, was the Polar stunning four to three upset at the expense of Washburn's high-riding crew. After this defeat the Millers went on to win the championship.
